So in love with you.

Am                      G/B                      C                      D
Every day it's something new, one more reason to trust in you.

Am                      G/B                      C                      D
If I live ten thousand days, don't let me miss this chance to say...

Am              G/B      C                                      D
Every hour that I live, I am humbled that you would forgive me...

Am              G/B                      C                      D
You are merciful indeed, you've been so wonderful to me...
