Ascend to Heaven

I want to climb to the peak of the mountain
To the feet of the Father and see with my eyes
I want to rise from the death of this valley
From the pain that surrounds me and stay here a while
You are glorious and victorious and You've welcomed us into Your arms
Heaven and Earth will behold the Lamb of God whom, foretold
Was sent to save young and old, Jesus Christ!
The angels sing of Your fame! Your people worship amazed!
Salvation comes in the name of Jesus Christ!
I want to bow with my heart ever-beating
At the sight that I'm seeing, my Savior alive
So, right here and now, with this breath that I'm breathing
All praises exceeding to Jesus the Christ
